

6516205502.txt

The reason I subscribe to satellite radio is it's lack of FCC regulations that have kept terrestrial radio from evolving into the 20th century much less the 21st century. Let the NAB focus on their old issues and let satellite radio continue to provide quality programming free of FCC gags and handcuffs that stifle innovation.